JAMES G. TEMME, and STEWARDSHIP FUND, LP, Defendants.

RECEIVER’S UNOPPOSED APPLICATION TO EMPLOY GREG T. MURRAY AS ACCOUNTANT FOR RECEIVER

Keith M. Aurzada as Receiver (the “Receiver”) for James G. Temme, Stewardship Fund, LP, and all other entities directly or indirectly controlled by James G. Temme or Stewardship Fund, LP, including, but not limited to Stewardship Advisors, LLC, d/b/a Stewardship Advisors, LP, Stewardship Asset Management Genpar I, LLC, Stewardship Group, LLC, Destiny Fund, LP, and Stewardship Management, LP (collectively, the “Defendants”), hereby files his Unopposed Application to Employ Greg T. Murray as Accountant for Receiver (the “Application”), in and support hereof respectfully states as follows:

1. On October 14, 2011, the Securities and Exchange Commission instituted the above-captioned action, and Receiver was appointed as receiver for the Defendants through the Court’s entry of the Agreed Order Appointing Receiver Over Entities Under Control of James G. Temme (Dkt. No. 24) Agreed Order Appointing Receiver Over Stewardship Fund, LP, and Related Entities (Dkt. No. 25) and Order Appointing Receiver Over James Temme (Dkt. No, 30) (together, the “Receiver Orders”). Pursuant to the Receiver Orders, the Receiver is to take exclusive custody and control of all assets and records of, or traceable to, the Defendants.

2. The Receiver has determined the necessity of employing an accountant to assist with day-to-day accounting needs and desires to employ Greg T Murray, CPA CFE (“Murray”) as an accountant to the Receiver.

3. Murray is a duly qualified accountant and, in the opinion of the Receiver, is qualified to act as an accountant for the Receiver in this matter. A copy of Murray’s current curriculum vitae is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Receiver has selected the Murray for the reason that he is a solo practitioner whom the Receiver has used in other matters, including in other receivership matters, and is capable of performing the day-to-day accounting tasks the Receiver requires at a rate more favorable than that available from large accounting firms.

4. To the best of the Receiver’s knowledge, Murray does not hold or represent an interest adverse to the receivership estate and is disinterested for the purpose of representing the Receiver in this proceeding.

5. Compensation for services rendered in this proceeding by Murray shall be subject to ultimate allowance by this Court and, as to the timing of payment, upon the availability of sufficient assets and funds in the estate.

6. The Receiver seeks to compensate Murray by submitting periodic fee applications to the Court that describe the work performed by Murray during the time period described. In each interim fee application the Receiver will seek authorization to compensation Murray for 80% of the work performed during the period and reimbursement for all expenses incurred during the period. After Murray has completed his work for the Receiver, the Receiver will submit a final fee application to the court in which he will seek authorization to compensate Murray for all work performed during that period, all expenses incurred during that period, and the 20% that was withheld in the interim fee applications.
